

THE INTERSECT PROJECT

Peachtree City

Wellspring Volunteers work a four-hour shift one or two days a week. This is a fun, easy, and rewarding way to support Wellspring. From accepting and sorting donations to helping customers or running the cash register, anyone can help. For more information call (770) 632-1788

Tyrone

Real Life Center Volunteers serve in many areas, including volunteering for a special project, serving at the Real Life Store or Real Life Center once a week/month, overseeing a neighborhood food drive, delivering furniture, or adopting the Real Life Center for a fundraiser event. For more information, call Vicki Troyer at (770) 631-9334.

Newnan

Coweta County Habitat for Humanity offers opportunities for painting, patching holes, taking up carpet, etc. Habitat for Humanity's mission is to restore homes for families who are in need. Volunteers are also needed to help in their store located off Pine Road in Newnan. For more information, contact Miranda at (770) 252-9049, ext. 14.

Community Welcome House is a home for women and children who are homeless due to domestic violence, poverty, and other crisis situations. The Community Welcome House seeks volunteers for a variety of projects. To volunteer and for more information, please contact Deana Kwon at cwh@communitywelcomehouse.org or call (770) 304-0988, ext. 1.

One Roof/Coweta Food Pantry provides needed food and sundry items for those less fortunate. One Roof/Coweta Food Pantry offers opportunities to serve by sorting clothing, stocking pantry shelves, and cleaning display items. For more information or to discuss volunteer opportunities, please contact Derenda Rowe at (770) 683-7705.

Fayetteville

Fayette Youth Protection Homes is a non-profit organization that provides safe shelter and physical, educational, and emotional support to children and youth who have been the victims of abuse or neglect in order to strengthen them for the next phase of life. Opportunities to serve include:

- Gracie's Closet - Volunteers are needed to sort and hang clothing as well as assist foster parents and foster children when they "shop" in the store
- Fundraising - Volunteers are needed to organize and work various fundraisers throughout the year
- Office Support - In this capacity, volunteers would assist with data input and bulk mailings on an as-needed basis. FYPH is also in need of someone with knowledge and experience in computer trouble-shooting
- Yard Maintenance - Volunteers are needed to mow the grass, trim bushes, sweep walkways, and perform general maintenance duties
- Communications - FYPH is always looking for volunteers with a knack for writing, public speaking, and graphic design to assist with the newsletter, various publications, and our fundraising events
- Home Repair/Maintenance - Volunteers are needed to perform general household "handyman" repairs, appliance repair, and/or heating & air conditioning maintenance

For more information call (770) 461-7020

Fayette County DFACS provides opportunities to help local families by providing holiday meals, providing toys for Christmas, and by supplying clothing and school supplies. For more information on how to help with the Fayette County DFACS, please contact India Terrell at (770) 460-2555.

Fayette Samaritans is an all-volunteer benevolent organization that is supported by many churches in the Fayette County area as a centralized way of assisting needy people and transients in the area. Contact the office at 770-719-2707 to discuss volunteer opportunities including serving as an interviewer or receptionist, or assisting in the food pantry and clothes closet.

Atlanta

Trinity Community Ministries is dedicated to transforming the lives of people who are homeless, hungry or struggling with drug abuse. Trinity Community Ministries prepares homeless men to live independently by:

- Discovering and embracing their spirituality
- Encouraging the cessation of drug use and other dysfunctional behaviors
- Obtaining and maintaining employment
- Establishing savings significant to them (usually $1,000 or more)
- Achieving individually-defined goals
- Paying rent and other monthly bills

Trinity House needs meals provided each night for up to 36 men. Volunteers have the opportunity to eat with the residents. For more information, contact Kathy Cannon at (404) 577-6651
